Student Statement (maximum 3000 Characters)

In your own words please describe what you hope to achieve by attending graduate school at the University of Regina (include details of your proposed course of study, thesis, or project, why you want to pursue graduate education, and how this funding will help you reach your goals).

FGSR will require one letter of recommendation to be submitted to grad.funding@uregina.ca. The letter can be written in any style but should speak to your potential as a graduate student.

Submit this completed application and your unofficial University of Regina transcripts (available on U of R self-service) to grad.funding@uregina.ca.
