REGINA COLLEGE PHOTOGRAPHS
AND MEMORABILIA FROM LURLEEN A. (GISH) LOCKWOOD

BY ELIZABETH SEITZ

JUNE 2015

Biographical Sketch: Lurleen Anna Gish was born in 1909, her father worked for the Canadian Pacific Railway Company and after a brief time in Regina the family moved to Kronau. In 1923, at the age of 13, Lillian was presented a bronze medal for obtaining the highest marks in grade eight examinations for all rural schools districts in Saskatchewan, the medal was donated by his Excellency Lord Byng of Vimy then Governor General of Canada. Lurleen enjoyed music and took the train to Regina for piano lessons until she started grade 9, when she moved to the city to attend Regina College becoming active in drama and music and later attended Normal School.

After Normal School Lurleen taught at Hart, South Dakota near Coronach, Saskatchewan and at schools in Readlyn and Rabbit Lake. In 1934 she married R.F. Lockwood and the couple farmed at Briarcrest, they moved to Regina in 1943 and then to Moose Jaw in 1961.

Lurleen was a student at the Senior's Education Centre, taking several classes in her retirement. Lurleen especially enjoyed music classes.
