Re: 15-18 month AUR Follow-up with CCAM

Dear Professor Taylor,

Thank you for meeting with CCAM on February 4th to discuss the School's progress on the implementation of the recommendations. We recognize the work to date as a result of the Academic Unit Review process and would encourage the School to continue their discussions about the future of the Journalism program and carefully assess your resources that would be required to support a balanced approach program. The School should continue to expand its relationships with First Nations University and look at developing programs with other faculties.

In three years, it is anticipated that the School will submit a final update to CCAM demonstrating the achievements of the program as a result of the Academic Unit Review process.

Sincerely,

Christina Winter, Chair
Council Committee on Academic Mission
