The faculty has been considering the removal of this non-credit requirement for many years. Students in the joint BSRS/BBA will still be required to take BUS 007 as it remains a degree requirement for the Bachelor of Business Administration.

3.0	One Film Production, Film Studies, or MAP elective courses at the 200-, 300-, or 400- level
30.0	Total - a minimum PGPA of 65.00% is required

Notes: Registration in many of these courses requires permission from the Department Head. Completion of this Diploma may require registration in the fall, winter, and spring/summer terms.*

Rationale: Because of recent FILM course revisions (see Items for Information), this change will allow more opportunity for students complete the program as it may be very difficult for students to have the prerequisite to take a 400-level production course.

Rationale: This name change to the MAP grad courses from the designation "FA" to the designation "MAP" is a key recommendation of the IDS Grad Unit Review Team. MAP changed its identity from "Fine Arts" to "MAP" in 2016-17, and the undergrad courses changed their course designations accordingly, from "FA" to

"MAP," in 2017. This belated change at the grad level will avoid ongoing confusion, bringing the grad courses into alignment with the nomenclature used for the undergrad courses, and consolidate all of the MAP grad interdisciplinary core course names around the MAP faculty name, brand and identity

6.1 REVISION - FACULTY ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE REGULATIONS

MOTION: That the revision to the Faculty Academic Performance Regulations be approved, effective 202120.

Faculty Academic Performance Regulations

A student will be required to discontinue from the Faculty of Nursing if the prerequisite minimum grade requirement of 60% in BIOL 111 (or equivalent courses) is not attained on a second attempt at the course.

Rationale: A minimum grade of 60% in BIOL 111 is the pre-requisite for CNUR 107 and CNUR 202. Without this pre-requisite, a student will be unable to progress in the program. Two attempts are the maximum number of attempts allowed at the University of Regina.

*PSYC 75.657 Advanced Clinical Practice in Psychiatric Nursing I through Brandon University is also an acceptable course to fulfill this requirement.

Rationale: The prefix NURS will differentiate these courses from a Collaborative Nurse Practitioner Program (CNPP) course. Content, and description for each course will not be changing. The CNS program was suspended in 2019, current students continuing to progress through the program to completion. This change to the program requirements will apply to current students in the CNS program.

Rationale: Students were previously permitted to take up to one 400-level course to fulfill the requirements of their program. This has been replaced with the ability to take up to two 700-level courses.

Allowing two 700-level courses to be eligible for the MSc Thesis Route will allow high-achieving students in the MSc in Computer Science (Data Science) or MSc in Computer Science (Human-Centred Computing) programs who find a faculty member willing to supervise their research to transfer to the thesis route after their first semester without losing the ability for their first-semester coursework to apply to their new degree route.

ITEM(S) FOR INFORMATION

1. FACULTY OF ENGINEERING AND APPLIED SCIENCE

Petroleum Systems Engineering (PSE) Program Template

PSE program template is being updated by moving CHEM 140 to Term 7 and GEOL 270 to Term 5 because GEOL 270 is now offered by Geology as a fall term course, effective 202120.

PSE needs to remove GEOL 270 from Term 7 due to the reallocation of this course into Term 5, by the Geology Department. This requires the following accommodations:

1. In Term 5, to add GEOL 270 (from Term 7)
2. In Term 7, to add CHEM 140 (from Term 5)

If the Geology Department offers GEOL 270 in Term 7 in future, a swapping between Term 5 GEOL 270 and Term 7 CHEM 140 will be proposed and a new motion will follow accordingly.

Accreditation Units (AU) to meet minimum 195 AU's
Course arrangement background:

- CHEM 140 to be offered in Term 5 and Term 7
- GEOL 270 fits PSE student need
- GEOL 270 to be offered in Term 5 by Geology Department

Accreditation Impact: CHEM 140 and GEOL 270 are science courses, so there is no impact with the required AU count for Natural Science and Engineering Design.

ITEM(S) FOR APPROVAL

1. FACULTY OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

1.1 CONCURRENT PROGRAM - CERTIFICATE IN IDEATION, CREATIVITY AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP

MOTION: That the Certificate in Ideation, Creativity and Entrepreneurship (ICE Certificate) be allowed as a concurrent (secondary) program for students of the Faculty of Business Administration and for University of Regina students in other Faculties, effective 202120.

The result of this motion will be a change to the Faculty of Business Administration portion of the University of Regina Undergraduate Calendar under the heading "Concurrent programs".

Concurrent programs

1. Business administration students may take a secondary program in other faculties (with some limitations).
2. Students in other faculties cannot take the BBA or BAdmin program as a secondary program.
3. Students in other faculties may take the DipBA or DipAdmin as a secondary program.
4. Business administration students and students in other faculties may take the Certificate in Ideation, Creativity and Entrepreneurship as a secondary program.

Rationale: The ICE Certificate will most often be of interest to students who are already enrolled in another University of Regina program. Allowing this certificate to be a secondary program permits these students to remain enrolled in their primary program while concurrently completing the ICE Certificate.

Saskatchewan Teacher's Certificate Assessment letter from the Saskatchewan Professional Teachers Regulatory Board and Proficiency in French, according to the University of Regina Language Proficiency Regulations. Admission is available in all terms and will align with the University of Regina deadline dates.

Rationale: This 18 credit hour certificate is the French version of the Certificate for Internationally Educated Teachers currently offered by the Faculty of Education. 3.1 NEW MINOR - BILINGUAL MINOR IN AFRICAN STUDIES

MOTION: To create a Bilingual Minor in African Studies, effective 202130.

Bilingual Minor in African Studies

The Bilingual Minor in African Studies introduces students to African history, culture, politics, and social realities and allows students to develop intercultural understanding, critical thinking, and communication skills in French and English. The program consists of two required courses and four electives. A study abroad option in Francophone Africa is offered every two years.

Language requirement

Students must complete at least 9 credit hours in French. Language proficiency requirements for individual courses can be met with 1. Pre-requisites including FRN200, 201, 300, or 301, depending on the course; or 2. Previous French-language learning (e.g., Grade 12 French immersion, native fluency) and a Language Placement Test scoring at or above the required level defined by the prerequisite.

Rationale: This program will enrich La Cité’s current program offerings, helping to attract more students and reinforcing the intercultural dimension of our programs. Courses relevant to African Studies are already offered in other faculties including Arts and MAP. An African Studies program, housed at La Cité, will increase cross-faculty collaboration, while allowing students interested in this area to complete a focused program of study that will enrich their understanding of African history, culture, politics, and social realities. Please see the proposal for a more detailed rationale and the program description.

4. FACULTY OF MEDIA, ART, AND PERFORMANCE

4.1 PROGRAM NAME CHANGE - BACHELOR OF FINE ARTS (BFA) IN DEvised PERFORMANCE

MOTION: To rename the recently approved program from BFA in Devised Performance to BFA in Devised Performance and Theatre Creation, effective 202120.

Rationale: The new BFA was developed as a BFA in Devised Performance and Creation but it was felt that “and Creation” was unnecessary. Since then the program has moved through several committees and there is a sense that the current name BFA in Devised Performance is too vague. The proposed name, BFA in Devised Performance and Theatre Creation eliminates most of the confusion that the previous name had created. It ensures theatre, as opposed to other disciplines like dance where devising is also a pedagogical foundation, remains at the core of the program while reinforcing that this program is focused on the development of new work.

5.1 ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS REVISION - BACHELOR OF SCIENCE HONOURS PROGRAM

MOTION: To revise the admission requirements to the Bachelor of Science Honours program, effective 202120.

Bachelor of Science Honours (BSc Honours)

The structure of the BSc Honours degree is the same as that of the BSc, except that a minimum of 54 credit hours must be in the major discipline, and a maximum of 24 credit hours of electives is permitted.

Students wishing to pursue a BSc Honours program require permission of the Department. Students pursuing a B.Sc Honours in Economics, Geography and Environmental Science or Psychology must apply for admission according to the criteria set out by the Department housing the Honours program they are seeking. Please contact the Science Student Services office for further information.

Rationale: This paragraph is being added to the Undergraduate Calendar to ensure transparency to students interested in the Honours program.

6.1 NEW CERTIFICATE - CERTIFICATE IN INDIGENOUS LANGUAGE I

MOTION: To create the 15-credit hour Certificate in Indigenous Language I, effective 202120.

Certificate in Indigenous Language I

Credit hours	Certificate in Indigenous Language I , required courses
*All language courses must be completed in the same language.
0.0	ARTS 099 or CCE 099
3.0	One Indigenous Language course numbered 100
3.0	One Indigenous Language course numbered 101
3.0	One Indigenous Language course numbered 202
3.0	One Indigenous Language course numbered 203
3.0	One Indigenous Language course numbered 206 OR LING 100 OR LING 230*
15.0	INLI Certificate – 65.00% GPA required
*Please note this course has a prerequisite outside of this program or requires the permission of the Program Coordinator.

Rationale: This program will allow all faculties to access a program of study similar to our Arts minor in Indigenous languages. It also broadens the potential subject base to all of the Indigenous languages of Canada, beyond those already established and offered at First Nations University of Canada, and allows us to accept transfer credit from other institutions which can feed into this and our other Indigenous Language programming (e.g. Indigenous Language Guardianship, Indigenous Education minor, etc.).

*Please note these courses have a prerequisite outside of this program or requires the permission of the Program Coordinator.
Approved electives: Indigenous Language courses (as available) LING 210, 211, 212, 213, 230, 280, 327, 360, 380, 485, 490

Rationale: This program will expand on the Certificate of Indigenous Language I established in the previous motion and allow students in all faculties to access an advanced program of study in Indigenous languages, with a potential subject base broadened to all of the Indigenous languages of Canada. By accepting transfer credit from other institutions which can feed into this and our other Indigenous Language programming (e.g. Indigenous Language Guardianship, Indigenous Education minor, etc.), we can expand our potential student body to a national audience.

6.3 NEW CERTIFICATE - CERTIFICATE IN INDIGENOUS LANGUAGE GUARDIANSHIP

3.0	One course in Indigenous Literatures (INDL 240AA-ZZ*, INDL 241*, or INDL 242* ⁸)
3.0	LING 230* ⁹
3.0	LING 280 ¹⁰
3.0	EINL 325* ¹¹ or LING 327* ¹²
30.0	Subtotal – 65.00% GPA required
*Please note each of these courses have a prerequisite outside of this program or requires the permission of the Program Coordinator.

¹ All of these courses have a prerequisite that is not built into the program. The INDL courses numbered 100 and 101 have been added to the program, nullifying this objection.

² This course was created in 201030 and has never been offered. We are attempting to build capacity for this and other Indigenous Language courses by offering a program in which they can contribute. Allowing such an objection to block the creation of a program that would include this class would simply perpetuate the problem.

³ This course was last offered 200510. As with Note 2.

⁴ All of these courses have a prerequisite that is not built into the program. As with Note 1, the 100-level language courses are now included in the proposal.

⁵ This course was created in 201110 and has never been offered. As with Note 2.

⁶ This course was created in 201110 and has never been offered. As with Note 2.

⁷ This course was created in 201110 and has never been offered. As with Note 2.

⁸ All of these courses have a prerequisite that is not built into the program. Although each of these courses carries a prerequisite, we will not be reducing the Indigenous Language content of this program in favour of a course, for instance, in English. The majority of students expected to access this program will be FNUniv/U of R students who require that prerequisite as part of their studies. All other students (e.g. Continuing Ed) will be made aware that there is an additional prerequisite required here. In any event, part of the current prerequisite is “permission of the Department Head” and this option will be considered on an individual basis.

⁹ Prerequisite is completion of 30 credit hours or permission of department head. Students wishing to pursue this program will be granted permission for this course. Additionally, we are altering the prerequisite to include completion of the Arts Language Requirement as an option, and that option will be taken care of within this program.

¹⁰ Prerequisite is LING 100 or completion of the Arts Language Requirement. The Arts language requirement is now part of the program.

¹¹ Prerequisite is an introductory course in the principles of teaching English as a Second Language or EINL 225. This option is available for students within Indigenous Education should they choose to pursue a more rigorous course of language study that is currently available within their own Faculty.

¹² FNUniv is in current discussions with the Faculty of Arts to consider a change to LING 327 allowing for this prerequisite to be revised to read as....Prerequisite is LING 220 or an introductory course in the teaching of English or French as a second language.

Rationale: When this certificate was first proposed three years ago, it was meant to build on the Faculty of Arts Indigenous Language minors already on the books, provide a stepping stone between both the Indigenous Language and Linguistics minors and the full degree programs, and also provides a program that is available to more than just students in the Arts Faculty. Due to initial objections, largely surrounding prerequisites, we have modified the original to address those objections (see notes). The impetus for this program is the increasing requests from students from such faculties as Indigenous Social Work for a program that they can include within their course of studies since they are unable to access Arts minors. This program will address this problem. Additionally, this certificate provides a counterpart to our First Nations Language Instructors' Certificate which is geared primarily to Education students and language instruction. We have received considerable feedback from communities where people wish to work with their languages in a capacity that does not necessarily involve language instruction, and this certificate allows us to meet this need. Finally, please note that all courses are already available, so no new curriculum is needed.¹³ Although the program as now envisioned will be available to Continuing Education students outside the regular U of R community, its main audience remains our general student body.

Please see the Registrar's Program Questionnaire for this certificate in Attachment 5.

7. REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

7.1 REVISION - SENIOR CITIZENS' TUITION WAIVER

MOTION: To update the Senior Citizens' Tuition Waiver, effective 202120.

Senior Citizens' Tuition Waiver - Tuition, subject to certain restrictions, may be waived for Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada ~~persons~~ 65 years of age and over (as of the end of the term in which they enrol) up to a maximum of 15 credit ~~units~~ hours total during the Fall and Winter terms (September to April) and a maximum of six credit ~~units~~ hours total in the Spring and Summer terms (May to August). The waiver applies to tuition only. More information on how to register is available on the Registrar's Office website.

Rationale: This is a housekeeping item; Senior Citizens' Tuition Waiver is being updated to clarify citizenship requirements.

(End of Motion)

¹³ Based on the current layout of the program, students will need to complete an additional minimum four courses to be able to complete the certificate. This would potentially prevent new students or students in other faculties from registering in this program. Due to changes in the proposal, there is now only one potential prerequisite outside of the program (see Note 8) and students will be made aware of that fact.

I. PROGRAM INFORMATION

Program Name: Bilingual Minor in African Studies/Mineure bilingue en études africaines

Type of Program:

	Certificate
	Diploma
	Baccalaureate
	After Degree
X	Other (specify): Minor

Credential Name (if different from Program Name):

Faculty(ies)/School(s)/Department(s): La Cité universitaire francophone

Expected Proposal Submission Date (Month/Year): November 2020

Expected Start Date (Month/Year): September 2021

II. RATIONALE (CCAM)

1. Describe the rationale/need for this program.

This program will enrich La Cité's current program offerings, helping to attract more students and reinforcing the intercultural dimension of our programs. Courses relevant to African Studies are already offered in other faculties including Arts and MAP. An African Studies program, housed at La Cité, will increase cross-faculty collaboration, while allowing students interested in this area to complete a focused program of study that will enrich their understanding of African history, culture, politics, and social realities. The bilingual nature of the program is intended to accommodate and enhance students' competency in French and English. Like English, French remains an important language in Africa. According to the Organisation Internationale de la Francophonie (2018), Africa is home to 59% of the 300 million French speakers in the world. In Saskatchewan, there is a growing African diaspora community, a significant proportion of which is French-speaking. The program thus also responds to a need within the Fransaskois community for academic programs that focus on African perspectives and realities. Finally, the program can contribute to intercultural education at the University of Regina, helping students to better understand how colonization, enslavement, and anti-Black racism have shaped the experiences of the African diaspora, and in turn how members of the diaspora have resisted these structures of oppression. This type of intercultural education complements the University's initiatives around anti-racism and EDI.

2. What are the key objectives and/or goals of this program and how will it be delivered?

The key goals of the program are to:

- Enrich the intercultural dimension of academic programs at La Cité
- Introduce students to African history, culture, politics, and social realities
- Improve students' intercultural understanding and skills
- Improve students' critical thinking and communication skills (in both French and English)

The program will be delivered as a combination of required courses (2) and electives (4). A study abroad option in Francophone Africa will be offered every two years. Please see program template, below.

3. How does this program compare to similar programs (Provincial/National)?

Similar programs are available in other Canadian universities:

BrockU: Minor in Africana Studies = total of 5 courses (3 required Sociology courses, Introduction to Sociology, Racialization and Society; Sociology of African Canadians)

UCalgary: Minor in African Studies = 30 credit hours; 3 African Studies courses (1 of which is mandatory)

Carleton: Minor in African Studies = total of 8 courses (2 required core courses, African Studies I and II)

UToronto: Minor Program in African Studies = total of 8 courses (2 required core courses, Africa in the World and African Religious Traditions Through History)

YorkU: Honours Minor in African Studies = 30 credit hours (2 required core courses, Introduction to African Studies and African Popular Culture)

4. List the expected benefits of the program to University of Regina students.

The new program will:

- Enrich the academic and intercultural experiences of U of R students
- Provide a new bilingual program for students wishing to build French-language competency
- Help diversify the programs and courses available to students
- Provide students with a better understanding of African history, culture, politics and social realities

5. What is the impact on current programs? Does this program duplicate or overlap with existing University programming in any way? If so, the affected unit(s) must be consulted. Attach letters from affected units that show the host unit(s) and affected unit(s) have established a plan for managing the program overlap.

This new program will help diversify La Cité's current programs and it will be designed in such a way that it complements existing programs such as French and Francophone Intercultural Studies. This program does not overlap with existing University programs, but will help bring together course offerings on African topics in various Faculties in a focused program of study.

III. STRATEGIC CONSIDERATIONS (CCAM)

1. How does this program support your Faculty's Strategic Plan?

La Cité is focused on diversifying its program offerings in order to attract new students. Creating this bilingual program in African Studies will expose more students to La Cité courses and instructors. We expect that this will create synergies with our existing programs such as French and Francophone Intercultural Studies. For example, the minor could be attractive to students completing the BA in FFIS. The program will also draw bilingual students (e.g., graduates of French immersion programs) from other Faculties into La Cité courses. We expect the program to be attractive to students studying Anthropology, Economics, International Studies, Politics, Women's and Gender Studies, and other programs.

2. How does this program support the University Strategic Vision and Objectives and/or create other opportunities for the University?

The development of this program closely aligns with goal c), Internationalization, of the Discovery theme in the University of Regina Strategic Plan for 2020-25, All Our Relations. The plan states: "We strengthen the impact of our discoveries when we recognize and incorporate international points of view and develop strong relationships with individuals of diverse backgrounds. By integrating international, intercultural, and global dimensions into our discovery efforts we will broaden the perspectives and heighten the impact of our collective discovery. We will push the boundaries of discovery by creating globally aware citizens through: the inclusion of international students and research collaborators; the promotion of student, faculty, and staff mobility; and the incorporation of local and global worldviews into our teaching and research." The bilingual minor in African Studies will contribute to developing global worldviews and intercultural understanding among students. A study abroad course in francophone Africa will be offered once every two years, providing students with a valuable international experience. The program may draw significant interest from international students who are French-speakers. In addition, the program will build the University's capacity for teaching about African civilization.

3. Are there any other strategic considerations for this program?

No.

4. Does this program support external and/or community needs? Please attach letters of support if available.

With the growing number of students from Africa joining the university community, this program would be of a great benefit to them and the overall university student body. The program is of particular relevance to the Fransaskois community, whose vitality and growth are linked to increasing immigration from francophone regions of Africa. This program will allow La Cité to better reflect the needs of an increasingly diverse Fransaskois community.

The University of Regina Library

Evaluation of Library Resources New Undergraduate/Graduate Program Proposal

Program: bilingual minor in African Studies (undergraduate)

Description (provided):

This will allow students interested in this area to complete a focused program of study that will enrich their understanding of African history, culture, politics, and contemporary opportunities and challenges.

Rationale (provided):

This program will enrich La Cité's current program offerings, helping to attract more students and reinforcing the intercultural dimension our programs. Courses relevant to African Studies are already offered in other faculties including Arts and MAP. An African Studies program, housed at La Cité, will increase cross-faculty collaboration. The bilingual nature of the program is intended to accommodate and enhance students' competency in French and English. Like English, French remains an important language in Africa. According to the Organisation Internationale de la Francophonie (2018), Africa is home to 59% of the 300 million French speakers in the entire world. In Saskatchewan, there is a growing African diaspora community, a significant proportion of which is French-speaking. The program thus also responds to a need within the Fransaskois community for academic programs that focus on African perspectives and realities.

Library Recommendation by (name of Librarian) (select one):

I. PROGRAM INFORMATION

Program Name: Certificate in Indigenous Language 1 (CINL-1: subdesignation in specific language)

Type of Program:

x	Certificate
	Diploma
	Baccalaureate
	After Degree
	Other (specify):

Credential Name (if different from Program Name):

Faculty(ies)/School(s)/Department(s): Indigenous Languages, FNUniv

Expected Proposal Submission Date (Month/Year): December, 2020

Expected Start Date (Month/Year): May, 2021

II. RATIONALE (CCAM)

1. Describe the rationale/need for this program.

The need to protect, revitalize and reclaim Indigenous Languages is one of the motivating factors in the establishment of the First Nations University of Canada and integral to our Mission and Vision. While we have created programs in the past, most of these have been limited to reaching students enrolled in an Arts degree. The current proposal will allow prospective students across all campuses and programs to access credentials in the study of their Indigenous language and build towards lifelong learning. In terms of reconciliation, it is also a way for non-Indigenous students to reverse the heretofore one-way traffic towards knowledge of the colonial languages.

2. What are the key objectives and/or goals of this program and how will it be delivered?

The main objectives are:

1) to offer increasing levels of Indigenous language competency to those inside and outside of the general University community who might otherwise not pursue detailed study in language (e.g. students not otherwise interested in attending University, or students in such programs as ISW who cannot currently receive credit for our Arts minors.

Registrar's Undergraduate Academic Programming Questionnaire

2) to aid in our mandate of protecting, promoting and revitalizing Indigenous languages by building stronger programs which can in turn foster increased research in those languages.

The Indigenous Languages unit at FNUniv will continue to offer our language programs and ideally grow to meet the increased demand that we anticipate given such recent developments as the language-based calls to action of the Royal Commission on Truth and Reconciliation and the Federal Government's Indigenous Languages Act.

3. How does this program compare to similar programs (Provincial/National)?

This Certificate program is similar in scope to the Arts minors in Indigenous language study at FNUniv and the U of R. However, it is not limited to the Arts program, nor is it necessarily limited to the five First Nations Languages we currently offer at FNUniv. Though institutional transfer credit and special topics courses, we could conceivably allow learners from all Indigenous languages nationwide. There is no comparable program of that potential scope in Canada.

4. List the expected benefits of the program to University of Regina students.

The main benefits are designed for Indigenous students seeking knowledge of their Indigenous language and a pride in their cultural background and identity that can follow therefrom. Should non-Indigenous students seek to pursue this certificate, the learning of an Indigenous language is an excellent way to practice reconciliation in a province and nation that so sorely need it.

5. What is the impact on current programs? Does this program duplicate or overlap with existing University programming in any way? If so, the affected unit(s) must be consulted. Attach letters from affected units that show the host unit(s) and affected unit(s) have established a plan for managing the program overlap.

As stated above, it is similar to the Arts minors in the five First Nations languages of Saskatchewan already offered at FNUniv, less one course. However, as also stated above, it has the potential to go beyond those five languages, and it can be used as a first step towards a larger, 30-credit certificate, proposed at this same time (see CINL-2). The only unit affected by the proposal is our own Indigenous Languages unit.

Registrar's Undergraduate Academic Programming Questionnaire

III. STRATEGIC CONSIDERATIONS (CCAM)

1. How does this program support your Faculty's Strategic Plan?

The support of Indigenous Languages and the knowledge held within can arguably be said to be the raison d'être of First Nations University of Canada. From the current FNUniv Strategic Plan 2019-2024: ôtê nîkân:

"The intersection of students pursuing post-secondary education and the heritage, culture and knowledge systems of Indigenous peoples is what the Board of Governors identified to be the strategic priorities for the next five years."

Heritage, culture and knowledge systems are coded in and imparted through language. We seek to help students on their journey to the return of this gift.

2. How does this program support the University Strategic Vision and Objectives and/or create other opportunities for the University?

This certificate (and its companion CINL-2) support Indigenous Language education, promotion and revitalization as per both First Nations University's Mission statement (from its founding over 40 years ago) and the more the calls to action of the Royal Commission on Truth and Reconciliation. We are solely interested in supporting our students, which is at the core of FNUniv's current 5-year Strategic Plan 2019-2024: ôtê nîkân. If this reflects positively on the University as an institution that likewise supports Indigenous Language revitalization in this age of reconciliation, then that is definitely an opportunity to be seized.

3. Are there any other strategic considerations for this program?

4. Does this program support external and/or community needs? Please attach letters of support if available.

This program is the latest in our attempts to meet community needs by increasing the availability of Indigenous Language programming. The need for such programming has been built into our Mission and Vision from the founding of SIFC/FNUniv.

Online

At a distance (in a specific community for example)

Video-conferenced or distributed.

Please provide details.

As is common with FNUniv programming, we will use all means available to us to deliver our language programming. Our Cree courses are currently offered face-to-face (F2F) (COVID-19 notwithstanding) on-campus and in a variety of communities, by video conference (VC), and online. Our Sauteaux, Dene, Dakota, and Nakota classes are also offered F2F and by VC to reach all of our campuses and more remote communities. This is a practice that will continue.

Registrar's Undergraduate Academic Programming Questionnaire

V. Needs and Costs of the Program (CCB)

1. Are there any new faculty/staff resources required for the program? What will be the cost of the new resources?

There is no new staffing absolutely required for the program. If it is successful, it is always possible that it will allow us to increase our staffing and focus on Indigenous Language programming.

2. What is the budget source of the new resources?

n/a

3. What existing faculty/staff resources will be used? Is this additional workload or are these resources being redirected?

Our Faculty and Sessional instructors are already offering these courses on a regular basis.

4. Will the program have any specialized needs for off-site delivery, either online or video-conferenced or live-streamed or at a distance? If so, is there specific funding arranged for the development and delivery of such courses? What timelines are present for development and delivery (given it usually takes up to a year to develop an online course)? Have you consulted the Distance and Distributed Learning Committee and the Flexible Learning Division of CCE about such proposed development?

These courses are developed and being delivered through existing F2F and distance teaching delivery methods.

This program falls firmly between the CINL-1 and/or minor Indigenous language programs and the full major (which only exists for Cree and Saulteaux). It thus builds on the possibilities for Dakota, Nakota and Dene language student. Furthermore, it has the potential to go beyond the five First Nations languages of Saskatchewan. The only unit affected by the proposal is our own Indigenous Languages unit, and the only impact will be in increased enrolment for our existing language offerings.

I. PROGRAM INFORMATION

Program Name: Certificate in Indigenous Language Guardianship (CILG)

Type of Program:

x	Certificate
	Diploma
	Baccalaureate
	After Degree
	Other (specify):

Credential Name (if different from Program Name):

Faculty(ies)/School(s)/Department(s): Indigenous Languages, FNUniv

Expected Proposal Submission Date (Month/Year): December, 2020

Expected Start Date (Month/Year): May, 2021

II. RATIONALE (CCAM)

1. Describe the rationale/need for this program.

The need to protect, revitalize and reclaim Indigenous Languages is one of the motivating factors in the establishment of the First Nations University of Canada and integral to our Mission and Vision. While we have created programs in the past, most of these have been limited to reaching students enrolled in an Arts degree. The current proposal will allow prospective students across all campuses and programs to access credentials in the study of their Indigenous language and build towards lifelong learning. In terms of reconciliation, it is also a way for non-Indigenous students to reverse the heretofore one-way traffic towards knowledge of the colonial languages.

2. What are the key objectives and/or goals of this program and how will it be delivered?

The main objectives are:

- 1) to offer expertise in Indigenous Language documentation and revitalization techniques to those inside and outside of the general University community who wish to contribute to the promotion and revitalization of Indigenous Languages in their own communities.
- 2) to aid in our mandate of protecting, promoting and revitalizing Indigenous languages by building stronger programs which can in turn foster increased research in those languages.

Registrar's Undergraduate Academic Programming Questionnaire

The Indigenous Languages unit at FNUniv will continue to offer our language programs and ideally grow to meet the increased demand that we anticipate given such recent developments as the language-based calls to action of the Royal Commission on Truth and Reconciliation and the Federal Government's Indigenous Languages Act.

3. How does this program compare to similar programs (Provincial/National)?

This Certificate program provides specialization in the tools of language revitalization for those wishing to contribute to community-based language programming. It is a companion to the Education-based First Nations Language Instructor Certificate, with a focus on language documentation rather than language teaching. However, it is not limited to the Arts program, nor is it necessarily limited to the five First Nations Languages we currently offer at FNUniv. Through institutional transfer credit and special topics courses, we could conceivably allow learners from all Indigenous languages nationwide and increase our national student body thereby. There is no comparable provincial program (though the U of S continues to consider to move in this direction), and CILLDI at the University of Alberta is the only program which offers comparable training. This is an extension of the Indigenous Language programming that we have been dedicated to offering for many years at FNUniv and we do not wish to fall behind other institutions that suddenly decide reconciliation is a good cover to address a need they have never previously considered worthy of funding.

4. List the expected benefits of the program to University of Regina students.

The main benefits are designed for Indigenous students seeking both knowledge of their Indigenous language and an ability to contribute to community revitalization efforts. Should non-Indigenous students seek to pursue this certificate, the learning of an Indigenous language is an excellent way to practice reconciliation in a province and nation that so sorely need it.

5. What is the impact on current programs? Does this program duplicate or overlap with existing University programming in any way? If so, the affected unit(s) must be consulted. Attach letters from affected units that show the host unit(s) and affected unit(s) have established a plan for managing the program overlap.

This program is a companion of the Education-based First Nations Language Instructor Certificate program, but with a focus on community language documentation and revitalization rather than teaching. Furthermore, it is not limited to the Arts program, nor is it necessarily limited to the five First Nations Languages we currently offer at FNUniv. It thus builds on the possibilities for our Cree, Saulteaux, Dakota, Nakota, and Dene language student and has the potential to go beyond these five First Nations languages of Saskatchewan. The only unit affected by the proposal is our own Indigenous Languages unit, and the only impact will be in increased enrolment for our existing language offerings.

Registrar's Undergraduate Academic Programming Questionnaire

III. STRATEGIC CONSIDERATIONS (CCAM)

1. How does this program support your Faculty's Strategic Plan?

The support of Indigenous Languages and the knowledge held within can arguably be said to be the raison d'être of First Nations University of Canada. From the current FNUniv Strategic Plan 2019-2024: ôtê nîkân:

"The intersection of students pursuing post-secondary education and the heritage, culture and knowledge systems of Indigenous peoples is what the Board of Governors identified to be the strategic priorities for the next five years."

Heritage, culture and knowledge systems are coded in and imparted through language. We seek to help students on their journey to the return of this gift.

2. How does this program support the University Strategic Vision and Objectives and/or create other opportunities for the University?

This certificate supports Indigenous Language education, promotion and revitalization as per both First Nations University's Mission statement (from its founding over 40 years ago) and the more the calls to action of the Royal Commission on Truth and Reconciliation. We are solely interested in supporting our students, which is at the core of FNUniv's current 5-year Strategic Plan 2019-2024: ôtê nîkân. If this reflects positively on the University as an institution that likewise supports Indigenous Language revitalization in this age of reconciliation, then that is definitely an opportunity to be seized.

3. Are there any other strategic considerations for this program?

4. Does this program support external and/or community needs? Please attach letters of support if available.

This program is the latest in our attempts to meet community needs by increasing the availability of Indigenous Language programming. The need for such programming has been built into our Mission and Vision from the founding of SIFC/FNUniv.

8. What is the expected 5 year enrolment?

Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5
1	2	3	4	5

9. How will prospective and current students receive academic advising?

Through our SSS counsellors and recruiters as supplemented by Faculty of the Indigenous Languages programs.

10. Will this program be delivered in a distance or distributed manner. That is, is it planned that the entire program or specific courses will be delivered:

Online

At a distance (in a specific community for example)

Video-conferenced or distributed.

Please provide details.

As is common with FNUniv programming, we will use all means available to us to deliver our language programming. Our Cree courses are currently offered face-to-face (F2F) (COVID-19 notwithstanding) on-campus and in a variety of communities, by video conference (VC), and online. Our Sauteaux, Dene, Dakota, and Nakota classes are also offered F2F and by VC to reach all of our campuses and more remote communities. This is a practice that will continue.

Registrar's Undergraduate Academic Programming Questionnaire

V. Needs and Costs of the Program (CCB)

1. Are there any new faculty/staff resources required for the program? What will be the cost of the new resources?

There is no new staffing absolutely required for the program. If it is successful, it is always possible that it will allow us to increase our staffing and focus on Indigenous Language programming.

2. What is the budget source of the new resources?

n/a

3. What existing faculty/staff resources will be used? Is this additional workload or are these resources being redirected?

Our Faculty and Sessional instructors are already offering these courses on a regular basis.

4. Will the program have any specialized needs for off-site delivery, either online or video-conferenced or live-streamed or at a distance? If so, is there specific funding arranged for the development and delivery of such courses? What timelines are present for development and delivery (given it usually takes up to a year to develop an online course)? Have you consulted the Distance and Distributed Learning Committee and the Flexible Learning Division of CCE about such proposed development?

These courses are developed and being delivered through existing F2F and distance teaching delivery methods.

Rationale: The Master of Education in Adult Education and Human Resource Development (MEd in AHRD) will replace the Master of Adult Education and Community Engagement (MAECE) and Master of Human Resource Development (MHRD) degrees. Selected existing courses from these two degree programs will be combined into one program within the Masters of Education degree. Students will be able to select courses in both or either the Adult Education or the Human Resource Development streams, within one combined program. The new program responds to stakeholder and student calls for a coherent program with a combination of adult education and human resource development content. This new program aligns with student demand, course selection flexibility, and is consistent with the Strategic Plan of the University of Regina, while maintaining the integrity of the two original programs.

(End of Motion)

1.2 ADMISSION SUSPENSION - MASTER OF ADULT EDUCATION AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

MOTION: That admissions to the Master of Adult Education and Community Engagement (thesis route, project route, course route) programs be suspended, effective 202130.

Rationale: The Master of Education in Adult Education and Human Resource Development (MEd in AHRD) will replace the Master of Adult Education and Community Engagement (MAECE) and Master of Human Resource Development (MHRD) degrees. Selected existing courses from these two degree programs will be combined into one program within the Masters of Education degree. Students will be able to select courses in both or either the Adult Education or the Human Resource Development streams, within one combined program. The new program responds to stakeholder and student calls for a coherent program with a combination of adult education and human resource development content. This new program aligns with student demand, course selection flexibility, and is consistent with the Strategic Plan of the University of Regina, while maintaining the integrity of the two original programs.

(End of Motion)

1.3 ADMISSION SUSPENSION - MASTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

MOTION: That admissions to the Master of Human Resource Development (thesis route, project route, course-based route) programs be suspended, effective 202130.

Rationale: The Master of Education in Adult Education and Human Resource Development (MEd in AHRD) will replace the Master of Adult Education and Community Engagement (MAECE) and Master of Human Resource Development (MHRD) degrees. Selected existing courses from these two degree programs will be combined into one program within the Masters of Education degree. Students will be able to select courses in both or either the Adult Education or the Human Resource Development streams, within one combined program. The new program responds to stakeholder and student calls for a coherent program with a combination of adult education and human resource development content. This new program aligns with student demand, course selection flexibility, and is consistent with the Strategic Plan of the University of Regina, while maintaining the integrity of the two original programs.

Management of Transition (from old program to new program)

The new MEd in AHRD will come into effect 202130:

- new applicants will be accepted to the new program (Oct. 15, 2021)
- current students in MAECE and MHRD programs will be allowed to complete their degree according to the existing program outline and they will be given a one time offer to transfer to the new program.
- newly admitted students who defer their admission (up to one year) will be given the choice of completing their original degree or transfer into the new degree program.
- any requests for reinstatement from a Voluntary Withdrawal or Require to Discontinue (academic or administrative) will be to the new program.

Students who return from a leave of absence will be permitted to return to their original degree program.

(End of Motion)

1.4 DISCONTINUED ROUTE - MASTER OF EDUCATION IN CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION COURSE ROUTE

MOTION: That the Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction (EC&I) course route be discontinued, effective 202130.

Rationale: The course-based route of the Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction will be replaced by the recently approved Master of Education in Teaching, Learning, and Leadership, which will move this program toward a common theme of teaching, learning, and leadership by contributing courses from both EC&I (teaching and learning) and EDL (leadership) subject areas. The resulting course-based degree program is flexible enough to suit the needs of students from either area while providing a coherent program of study. The degree culminates with a Capstone seminar course which requires the student to reflect and synthesize their learnings from their program.

Management of Transition (from old program to new program)

Active students in the MEd in EC&I course route will be permitted to:

- (a) complete the program or
- (b) be offered a one-time opportunity to transfer to the new Master of Education in Teaching, Learning, and Leadership.

(End of Motion)

1.5 DISCONTINUED ROUTE - MASTER OF EDUCATION IN EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

MOTION: That the Master of Education in Educational Leadership course route be discontinued, effective 202130.

Rationale: The course-based route of the Master of Education in Educational Leadership will be replaced by the recently approved Master of Education in Teaching, Learning, and Leadership, which will move this program toward a common theme of teaching, learning, and leadership by contributing courses from both the EDL (leadership) and EC&I (teaching and learning) subject areas. The resulting course-based degree program is flexible enough to suit the needs of students from either area while providing a coherent program of study. The degree culminates with the completion of a Capstone seminar course which requires the student to reflect and synthesize their learnings from the program.

Management of Transition (from old program to new program)

Active students in the MEd in EDL course route will be permitted to

- (a) complete the program or
- (b) be offered a one-time opportunity to transfer to the new Master of Education in Teaching, Learning, and Leadership.

2. FACULTY OF MEDIA, ART, AND PERFORMANCE

2.1 PROGRAM RENAMED - MASTER OF ARTS IN INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

MOTION: That the Master of Arts (MA) in Interdisciplinary Studies program be renamed to the Interdisciplinary MA in Media and Artistic Research and be modified, effective 202130.

Rationale: This name change to the interdisciplinary Master's degrees in MAP is a key recommendation of the IDS Grad Unit Review Team. With the introduction of the Interdisciplinary PhD in Media and Artistic Research in 2018, the names of the Master's degrees require updating to reflect the MAP IDS Grad area's stated focus on Media and Artistic research.

The name changes will:

- 1) Align the degrees as part of the MAP stream of graduate programs in interdisciplinarity in media and artistic research
- 2) Create continuity between the Master's and PhD in order to recruit our Master's graduates and have them move seamlessly into the PhD, and to recruit new students into the flow of the MAP interdisciplinary brand
- 3) Avoid the current confusion due to inconsistent branding.

3. FACULTY OF SCIENCE

3.1 NEW PROGRAM - MASTER OF SCIENCE IN COMPUTER SCIENCE (DATA SCIENCE)

MOTION: That the Master of Science in Computer Science (Data Science) course route program be created, effective 202130.

MSc in Computer Science (Data Science)

A fully-qualified student may complete a Master's in Data Science by undertaking 30 credits of coursework. Students in this route who are interested in pursuing the Co-op Designation must complete CS 700, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, and 716 before they can undertake any co-op work terms.

CS 700	3
CS 710	3
CS 711	3
CS 712	3
CS 713	3
CS 714	3
CS 715	3
CS 716	3
CS 719	6
Total	30

Rationale: The MSc in Computer Science (Data Science) program provides a structured curriculum that progressively builds toward giving students advanced knowledge on this topic of study. Motions to create the specific courses in this program are provided in Motion 1; the courses are listed here for the convenience of considering this motion:

- First Semester (Fall)
 - CS 700: Software Development Fundamentals (3)
 - CS 710: Python & Data Fundamentals (3)
- Second Semester (Winter)
 - CS 711: Foundations of Data Science (3)
 - CS 712: Foundations of Statistics & Machine Learning (3)
- Third Semester (Spring/Summer)
 - CS 713: Applied Machine Learning (3)
 - CS 714: Big Data Analytics & Cloud Computing (3)
- Fourth Semester (Fall)
 - CS 715: Advanced Data Science & Machine Learning (3)
 - CS 716: Communication in Data Science (3)
- Fifth Semester (Winter)
 - CS 719: Data Science Seminar & Project (6)

The curriculum is structured such that the first semester focuses on the fundamentals of the topic of study, the second semester focuses on foundational topics, the third and fourth semesters focus on topically-relevant courses, and the fifth semester focuses on the development of a practical project.

Students who are interested in pursuing a Co-op Designation may apply after the completion of their third semester, if they have a CGPA of 80% or higher in the six courses taken thus far in the program. The work terms would be taken after the completion of the fourth semester, deferring the fifth semester coursework (CS 719) by one or two semesters.

Note that as this program is being rolled-out, we plan to admit students into it once per year, starting in the Fall 2021 semester. As such, only two additional courses need to be taught in each semester in the first year. In the second year, an additional two courses will need to be taught in the Spring/Summer semester, and one (6-credit) course taught in the Fall semester. While this will represent an increased graduate course teaching commitment from the Department of Computer Science in the short term, in the long run it will allow us to reduce the number of CS 8xx courses being offered and focus what remains of those courses on the research needs of our MSc Project, MSc Thesis, and PhD students. In recent years, we have added between 4 and 6 graduate courses per semester with the express purpose of providing courses for our MSc Course Route students to take; these will no longer be necessary.

The application period for students starting in the Fall 2021 semester is Nov 16, 2020 – March 15, 2021. Once this new program is fully approved, we will contact the highly-qualified candidates during the application review process to determine if they would like to be admitted into this program route or be considered for the final admissions cycle for the existing MSc in Computer Science (Course Route).

(End of Motion)

3.2 NEW PROGRAM - MASTER OF SCIENCE IN HUMAN CENTRED COMPUTING

MOTION: That the Master of Science in Computer Science (Human Centred Computing) program be created, effective 202210.

MSc in Computer Science (Human Centred Computing)

A fully-qualified student may complete a Master's in Human-Centred Computing by undertaking 30 credits of coursework. Students in this route who are interested in pursuing the Co-op Designation must complete CS 700, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, and 736 before they can undertake any co-op work terms.

CS 730	3
CS 731	3
CS 732	3
CS 733	3
CS 734	3
CS 735	3
CS 736	3
CS 739	6
Total	30

Rationale: Motion 2 proposed the creation of the MSc in Computer Science (Data Science) program. This motion proposes a second stream, giving students an option for pursuing professionally-focused advanced study in another area that is a strength of our Department of Computer Science.

The MSc in Computer Science (Human-Centred Computing) program provides a structured curriculum that progressively builds toward giving students advanced knowledge on this topic of study. Motions to create the specific courses in this program are provided in Motion 2; the courses are listed here for the convenience of considering this motion:

First Semester (Winter)

CS 700: Software Development Fundamentals (3)

CS 730: Human-Computer Interaction Fundamentals (3)

Second Semester (Spring/Summer)

CS 731: Human-Centred Interface Design & Implementation (3)

CS 732: Foundations of Human-Centred Evaluation Methods (3)

Third Semester (Fall)

CS 733: Computer Graphics & Animation (3)

CS 734: Mobile Computing (3)

Fourth Semester (Winter)

CS 735: Virtual and Augmented Reality (3)

CS 736: Information Visualization (3)

Fifth Semester (Spring/Summer)

CS 739: Human-Centred Computing Seminar & Project (6)

The curriculum is structured such that the first semester focuses on the fundamentals of the topic of study, the second semester focuses on foundational topics, the third and fourth semesters focus on topically-relevant courses, and the fifth semester focuses on the development of a practical project.

Students who are interested in pursuing a Co-op Designation may apply after the completion of their third semester, if they have a CGPA of 80% or higher in the six courses taken thus far in the program. The work terms would be taken after the completion of the fourth semester, deferring the fifth semester coursework (CS 739) by one or two semesters.

Note that as this new program is being rolled-out, we plan to admit students into it once per year, starting in the Winter 2022 semester. As such, only two additional courses need to be taught in each semester in the first year. In the second year, an additional two courses will need to be taught in the Winter semester, and one (6-credit) course taught in the Spring/Summer semester.

The application period for students starting in the Winter 2022 semester is March 16, 2021 – July 15, 2021. We expect this motion to be fully approved by March 16, 2021, at which time it will be added to the online application process as a new program.

(End of Motion)

3.3 ADMISSION SUSPENSION - MASTER OF SCIENCE IN COMPUTER SCIENCE (COURSE ROUTE)

MOTION: That the admissions to the Master of Science in Computer Science (Course Route) be suspended, effective 202130.

Rationale: The current MSc Course Route provides students with a high degree of flexibility in the courses that they wish to take. While this is a positive aspect of this program in principle, in practice it creates many difficulties with student registration and managing course sizes. Students often have trouble choosing which courses to take, and may have to wait multiple semesters for a course they are interested in due to high demand. With this set of motions, we propose to create new MSc programs in two streamed routes with specific curricula that are focused on professionally-focused advanced study in the specific streamed areas, which will serve as a replacement for the MSc in Computer Science (Course Route).

Any students currently in the MSc in Computer Science (Course Route) will be permitted to continue in that program to the completion of their degree. They will be permitted to take at most two of the new CS 7XX courses (see Motion 7). Any students who have been offered admissions into the current MSc Course Route but have not started their studies by 202120 (Spring/Summer 2021) will be given the option to choose to take either of the new programs. It is necessary to consider these individuals, since the offers of admissions made to the MSc in Computer Science (Course Route) are valid for three semesters. Any of these admitted students who wish to pursue the existing degree structure rather than one of the new ones will be permitted to do so.

ITEM(S) FOR DECISION:

1. RESEARCH CHAIR - GABRIEL DUMONT CHAIR IN MÉTIS/MICHIF EDUCATION

MOTION: The Council Committee on Research recommends approval of the establishment of the Gabriel Dumont Research Chair in Métis/Michif Education within the Faculty of Education, University of Regina.

Rationale: According to Statistics Canada 2016 census, the Métis population of 587,545 had the largest increase of any of the Indigenous groups in Canada over the 10-year span, rising 51.2% from 2006 to 2016. However, less than two per cent of Métis people speak the Michif language – down from 2.5 per cent in the 2011 census. It is important to note that Michif is considered to be one of the most vulnerable Indigenous languages in Canada.

The inaugural Gabriel Dumont Chair in Métis/Michif Education will be designated to a currently employed faculty member within the Faculty of Education. The appointment as the Gabriel Dumont Chair in Métis/Michif Education will be for a 5-year term, with the possibility of renewal.

If the inaugural Chair becomes vacant for any reason during the initial term, a call for Expressions of Interest will be posted for a new Chair to utilize the balance of the funding. As the inaugural Chair must hold a tenured or probationary faculty position.

Description of the research environment

The Faculty of Education has a long-standing commitment to building and nurturing an equitable and just teaching and research environment. Indigenization and reconciliation is central to this commitment as evidenced in the Faculty Criteria Document: “Our need to conceptualize and engage with students in pedagogy that works to undo the ongoing legacy of Canada’s colonial history while simultaneously working to sustain the identities of diverse Canadian learners and the communities and environments where we live is pressing” (p. 4). Expanding our research environment to include a greater emphasis on Métis worldview, culture and language complements our already robust, albeit still emerging, commitment to Indigenization. In the Faculty of Education research is intricately intertwined with teaching, and it is from these unique teaching partnerships that the success for the Gabriel Dumont Chair in Métis/Michif Education will be grounded.

For more than two decades the Faculty has strong partnerships with several Indigenous teacher education programs in both the undergraduate and graduate programs. These programs include: Saskatchewan Urban Native Teacher Education Program (SUNTEP, Regina), Northern Saskatchewan Indigenous Teacher Education Program (GDI), Masters of Indigenous Education, Masters of Indigenous Language Education, (First Nations University of Canada, Regina), and Yukon Native Teacher Education Program (YNTEP), Whitehorse).
